ABOUT ADAPTEON

Adapteon is a woman-owned small business providing PMP-led project and program management alongside Lean Six Sigma Black Belt (LSSBB) process improvement. We support government agencies by delivering disciplined execution, operational optimization, and measurable performance improvement. Our work integrates data-driven delivery with leadership and workforce insights, including certified Harrison Assessments debriefing and coaching, to ensure initiatives are implemented and sustained.

PAST PERFORMANCE

- Led PMP-aligned delivery for complex government initiatives
- Conducted enterprise operational performance and efficiency analyses
- Identified large-scale cost-reduction and optimization opportunities
- Developed and implemented strategic plans improving productivity and execution
- Designed KPI frameworks and reporting models for executive decision-making
- Provided executive-level operational oversight during organizational transitions
